CASE OF GEORGE J. KERR

The Reasons for Giving Kerr a Separate Trial Made Public by Judge Dixon.

ALSO REASONS FOR PREVIOUS SECRECY.

It is Said that Kerr Intends to Tell All About the Jennie Bosschieter Tragedy, and Will Claim that He was Sot Present When the Deadly Drug was Administered.

New York, Jan. 22.- A new light has been thrown on the case of George J. Kerr, indicted as one of the four murderers of Jennie Bosschieter in Paterson, N. J.

The reasons for giving Kerr a separate trial also have been made pullie. Judge Dixon, at the time he granted Kerr the privilege of being tried separately, said he would fil: his reasons later, and he has now made

Judge Dixon says the object of this secrecy was to prevent facts from reaching the jurors in the trial of the other three men that might possibly unduly influence their minds.

Kerr Intends to Tell All.

It now appears that Kerr intends to tell all about the tragedy on the night of October 18; that he will claim that he was not present at the time the deady drug was administered to Jennie Bosschieter, and that he not only did not take part in the assault, but, on the other hand, protested against it. Kerr expects to prove this by the confessions of Campbell and Death.

Prosecutor Emley will insist that Kerr had a guilty knowledge of all that took place on that night, aided and abetted in the poisoning. Reason for Postponing Trial.

Giving his reasons for the postponing of Kerr's trial, Judge Dixon said that the statements made by Death and Campbell to the police in plicated Kerr in certain ways, but such statements are not legal evidence of Kerr's guilt, and being introduced on the trial of Campbell, Death and McAlister they might have biased the minds of the jurors against Kerr. He further says that the counsel for Kerr made known to him that they would introduce an entirely different line of defense for Kerr to that made by Campbell, Death and

Lord Kitchener's Rebuke. A certain yeon, anry commander while on parade rated his men in unmeasured terms. Nothing was right that the troopers did. They sat their horses wrong, they moved unlike machinery, etc., and were "no better than than a d-d rabble," "a lot of gutter snipes," etc. "That," said Lord. Kitchener, who came up, "is not the way to address men. They are not 3 d-d rabble, but soldiers, and to be spoken to as such. No troops can be trained in that mashion, and the commander who does not respect his men is unable to lead them." The whole force, we are told, heard the observation, and the men were as decorously eleated as the yeomanry officer was obviously crestfallen.-London

THE DUTY OF MOTHERS.

What suffering frequently results from a mother's ignorance; or more frequently from a mother's neglect to properly instruct her daughter!

Tradition says "woman must suffer," and young women are so taught. There is a little truth and a great deal of exaggeration in this. If a young woman suffers severely she needs treatment, and her mother should see that she gets it. Many mothers hesitate to take their daughters to a physician for examina-tion; but no mother need hesitate to write freely about her daughter or herself to Mrs. Pinkham and secure the most efficient advice without charge. Mrs. Pinkham's address i

Mrs. August Pfalzgraf, of South Byron, Wis., mother of the young lady whose portrait we here publish, wrote Mrs. Pinkham in January, 1899, saying her daughter had suffered for two years with irregular menstruation— had headache all the time, and pain in her side, feet swell, and was generally miserable. Mrs. Pinkham promptly replied with advice, and under date of March, 1899, the mother writes again that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured her daughter of all pains and irregularity.

Nothing in the world equals Mrs. Pinkham's great medicine for regulating woman's peculiar monthly
